

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

One day while caught driving in an ice storm, I was slipping all over the road. I decided to call an expert, my brother, who drives for a living and asked him for advice. He asked how fast I was driving, I said, "Only 25 mph". He replied, "What's your hurry?" Though it seemed silly, I slowed down. Sure enough, I stopped slipping. I got home safe and sound though it took me a little longer.

In these economic times, it seems we have already been very thrifty in our spending but now more thrift is required of us. This month's newsletter is focused in those areas where Pheasantland shops can offer the best bargains for your operating dollars, without sacrificing quality or workmanship.

Employee Spotlight

Darren has been foreman for the past 5 years in the Cabinet Shop. His cabinets are not only beautiful but also of the highest quality. While most of the work in this shop is done for the Governor's Housing project at the Mike Durfee State Prison, he does custom cabinet work as well. This includes not only the cabinets but also custom laminated counter tops and bathroom vanities along with just about any other woodworking need you may have! Whether it is a big or small project, give Darren a call for a bid on your project. Darren's cabinets are arguably the best bargain that we have. Click Here

Weighted Blankets

Our new product for this month comes as a request from a customer. Weighted blankets, made to your specifications for weight, size and materials can be produced in our garment shop. Though they are a very labor intensive product to make, as poly beads are inserted into a quilted fabric, we have found, so far, that our prices are 50% of those advertised on the internet.

Can't afford new? Rebind!

When you are trying to save money, don't forget about our book bindery. A text book can be rebound for a fraction of the price of new books. For only $14.00 your book can be returned to you in "like new" condition. Text book covers are removed, the spines are re-glued, then sewn together, trimmed and finally a new cover is made and attached. Contact Chad at 605-367-5064 for any questions you may have.
