Office of Primary Responsibility: DOC Administration

II Policy:

Unless legitimate penological interest dictates otherwise, inmates shall be permitted to marry during incarceration. Inmates will not be permitted to marry other incarcerated individuals or those on probation, parole or suspended sentence supervision. The proposed marriage may not present a threat to the security or good order of an institution or the protection of staff, the public or other inmates.

III Definitions:

Staff Member:

For the purposes of this policy, a staff member is any person employed by the DOC, full or part time, including an individual under contract assigned to the DOC, an employee of another state agency, authorized volunteers and student interns assigned to the DOC.

IV Procedures:

1. DOC Participation:

- A. The requesting inmate will submit a written request to the Warden or designee at least 60 days prior to the proposed date of the marriage.
 1. The request will include the name of the intended spouse, date of the marriage and name of the individual performing the marriage.
 2. The Warden or his/her designee will approve the request or establish an alternate date, time and place for the marriage, provided the marriage does not compromise the legitimate penological interests of the DOC.
 3. The Warden or designee will notify the inmate in writing if the marriage is denied.
 4. The inmate and intended spouse are responsible for securing the marriage license.

- B. The inmate and intended spouse shall accept full financial responsibility for all expenses related to the marriage, i.e. clergy fee, marriage license fee. The Warden shall not permit state funds be used for the marriage of an inmate except those indirect funds inherent in providing a place for the marriage and staff supervision of those attending the marriage.
- C. The DOC and its staff shall not:
 - 1. Transport inmates from the institution for the purposes associated with the marriage, to include obtaining a marriage license.
 - 2. Grant exception, supersede or circumvent state law, DOC policy, procedure, operational memorandums or security standards to accommodate the marriage or activity associated with the marriage of an inmate.
 - a. An authorized individual entering the facility to solemnize the marriage must be on the inmate's approved visiting list or have a clergy card (See DOC policy 1.5.D.1 Inmate Visiting). The institutional chaplain may not perform marriage ceremonies for inmates, unless an exception is granted by the Warden or designee.
 - b. The intended spouse must be on the inmate's approved visit list (See DOC policy 1.5.D.1 Inmate Visiting).
 - c. Marriages will typically be scheduled during regular visit hours.
- D. If marriage of an inmate is denied, halted or suspended, the reason(s) shall be documented and forwarded to the Director of Prison Operations.
- E. South Dakota inmates housed in an out-of-state facility (including Interstate Compact inmates) are subject to the receiving/holding state's statutes, rules and/or policies pertaining to inmate marriages while in the custody of the out-of state facility.
- F. Inmates may not marry while on Temporary Absence status (TAP), while in the temporary custody of another authority or while in the community on furlough, work release or other status.
