Corrections Commission to hold teleconference

(Pierre) – The South Dakota Corrections Commission will hold a teleconference on Friday, March 26th to further discuss a potential venture by Pheasantland Industries, the program that creates jobs for state prison inmates.

The commission discussed the possibility of establishing a Native American crafts program at the South Dakota State Penitentiary during their meeting March 15th. Final action was not taken on the issue because of a lack of a quorum.

The commission will meet via teleconference at 9:00 a.m. CST, Friday March 26th. Media wishing to cover the teleconference can contact the Department of Corrections prior to the meeting for details on where to call in.
