State prison inmate back in custody

(Pierre, S.D.)- A state prison inmate that walked away from a minimum security unit in Sioux Falls last week is back in custody.

Inmate Lincoln Williams was apprehended in Lyman County on May 9th.

The Lyman County Sheriff's Office responded to a report of a burglary in progress south of Reliance on May 8th. A resident confronted the suspect, but the suspect left the scene in a vehicle that turned out to be reported stolen in Minnehaha County. On May 9th, the suspect was spotted again near the White River. Law enforcement officials from several communities responded to a call and took Williams into custody.

Williams is being held in the Brule County Jail.

Williams walked away from Unit C, the minimum security unit of the Jameson Annex to the South Dakota State Penitentiary, on May 3rd.
