Search under way for missing juvenile from STAR Academy

(Custer, S.D.)- A search is underway for a juvenile that ran away from the State Treatment and Rehabilitation (STAR) Academy near Custer this morning.

The 17-year old male was one of two youth that ran from the Patrick Henry Brady Academy program at STAR Academy just before 6:00 a.m. MT August 31. The second youth was apprehended a short time later in the Custer area.

The missing youth is a white male with brown hair and brown eyes. He is 6-feet tall and weighs approximately 160 pounds.

STAR Academy staff and area law enforcement officials are involved in searching for the youth.

Contact law enforcement immediately if you see the youth or know of his whereabouts.
