Statement of Secretary of Corrections Denny Kaemingk

“The execution of Inmate Donald Moeller was carried out this evening in accordance to state law.

South Dakota Codified Law assigns the responsibility for carrying out the warrant of death sentence and execution of offenders that are sentenced to death to the Department of Corrections. We take that responsibility very seriously.

Director of Prison Operations and Chief Warden Doug Weber and his staff spent extensive time preparing to ensure that the warrant of death sentence and execution was carried out in a professional, humane and dignified manner and in accordance to state law.”
