E. Offenders are not permitted to purchase products produced by Pheasantland Industries.

2. Manager of Pheasantland Industries:

- A. The PI manager shall sell the products produced by the various prison industries to federal and state agencies, nonprofit organizations, and state employees as defined in DOC policy 1.1.B.03 – Pheasantland Industries Sales to State Employees and SDCL § 24-7-16.
- B. All contracts for materials used in manufactured products, containers, machinery, repairs, and services shall be made and executed by the PI manager, with the approval by the secretary of corrections (SOC) or designee (see SDCL § 24-7-15).
- C. With approval from the SOC, the director of Finance and Administration is the custodian of all PI contracts, with the exception of contracts for materials, which is the responsibility of the PI manager (see SDCL § 24-7-16).
- D. The PI manager is responsible for marketing and advertising to promote the products and services produced by the industries and the management of contracts for materials.

3. Fiscal Responsibilities:

- A. A PI revolving fund will be available for the operation of the various prison industries (see SDCL § 24-7-7).
 - 1. Receipts from the sale of goods and services will be deposited in the revolving fund.
 - 2. Authorized expenses of PI will be paid from the revolving fund.
 - 3. At the end of the fiscal year, the state treasurer shall transfer any cash balance in excess of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) from the prison industries revolving fund to the state general fund (see SDCL § 24-7-9).
- B. No funds, other than those designated for normal operating costs and replacement of existing necessary equipment, may be expended from the revolving PI fund for the purposes of enhancement, development, or expansion of PI without approval of the Corrections Commission (see SDCL § 1-15-1.13).
- C. Any plan that requires official action from the Corrections Commission must be communicated to the director of Prisons, director of Finance and Administration, and the SOC.
 - 1. Information describing the proposed action must be prepared in advance for dissemination to the Corrections Commission for review and consideration prior to the commission taking formal action on the proposed action.
 - 2. The meeting shall be open to public comment, consistent with state open meeting laws.
- D. The PI manager will maintain separate accounts to clearly show the financial condition of each separate prison industry (see SDCL § 24-7-8).
- E. The PI manager shall be the custodian of all monies and property assigned to the industries and shall keep accurate account of all proceedings and transactions, and make all reports, requisitions, and statements as directed by the SOC or designee (see SDCL § 24-7-10).

4. Employment of Offenders:

- A. An offender's, custody level, classification, risk, aptitude, experience, and abilities (based on tests and interviews):

offender and risk assessment score assigned to the work site/assignment, in accordance with DOC policy 1.5.A.9 Offender Work Assignment Risk.

- B. The PI manager shall use offender labor in the operation of PI and shall pay wages to offenders within the limits fixed by the SOC (see SDCL §§ 24-7-6 and 24-4-7).
 - 1. Wages paid to offenders by PI are subject to processes and procedures regarding deposit and disbursement, as set forth by state and federal withholding laws.
- C. Offenders working in PI must notify the shop foreman in advance of any scheduled class, program, or appointment which requires the offender to be absent from their work schedule.
- D. No offender has any implied right or expectation to work in any particular job (See SDCL § 24-2-27). Offenders are subject to transfer or removal from any job assignment. Nothing in this policy or its application may be the basis for establishing a constitutionally protected liberty, property, or due process interest in any offender.
- E. No offender seeking employment or employed with PI, shall be discriminated against on the basis of race, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, religion, or other protected status. PI shall make reasonable accommodations for offenders, consistent with safety, security, and the legitimate penological interests of the DOC.
- F. Offender participation and employment within PI is strictly voluntary. Offenders removed from employment with PI have no right to continued employment or due process. Offenders assigned to jobs within PI are not employees of the state or PI for the purpose of protections granted under the federal Fair Labor Standards Act and are not entitled to federal minimum wage or prevailing wages.
- G. Offenders must be qualified and able to perform the essential functions of the job they are assigned, with or without a reasonable accommodation. PI retains the right to hire the best qualified offender applicant for the job.

5. Environmental Health Program at Pheasantland Industries:

- A. PI and its staff will develop work-related environmental health programs that will include the following:
 - 1. Assigning eligible offender workers who are physically and mentally able to perform the duties required of the job to a job assignment.
 - 2. Providing working conditions which conform to applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations.
 - 3. Participating in health, fire, risk, and safety inspections conducted at least annually by designated state inspectors/agencies as outlined in DOC policy 1.2.A.03 - Sanitation, Safety and Fire Prevention Inspections.
 - 4. Designating appropriately trained staff to participate in regular inspections of designated areas of PI accessible to staff and offenders to ensure compliance with all safety and security requirements and to identify and resolve any deficiency.

6. Annual Report of Activities of Pheasantland Industries:

- A. The SOC will submit an annual report to the governor and the legislature setting out all the activities of PI during the previous year on or before the first legislative day of session (see SDCL § 24-7-37).
 - 1. The annual report will include financial summaries of all activities of PI and a listing of all contracts.
 - 2. The annual report will also include a summary of any significant activities planned for the upcoming year.

V. RESPONSIBILITY

It is the responsibility of the director of Finance and Administration to annually review and revise this policy.
