State prison inmate Jeremiah Little placed on escape status

RAPID CITY, S.D.- A minimum-security state prison inmate has been placed on escape status.

Inmate Jeremiah Little was being transported to his community service jobsite in Rapid City when he got out of the transport vehicle and left the area in another vehicle.

Little, age 39, is a Native American male. He is 6-foot-3-inches tall and weighs approximately 220 pounds. He has brown hair and hazel eyes.

Little is currently serving sentences from Pennington County for eluding, committing a crime while armed and distribution of a controlled substance.

If you see Little or know of his whereabouts, please contact law enforcement immediately.

Failure to return to custody following an assignment constitutes second-degree escape, a Class 5 felony punishable by up to 5 years in prison.
