Inmate Anthony McDonald in custody

YANKTON, S.D.- One of two minimum-security state prison inmates who were placed on escape status this week is back in custody.

Inmate Anthony McDonald was apprehended in Minnehaha County March 30.

Inmates McDonald and Gaige McCune left their work release jobsite in Yankton without authorization March 29 and failed to return to the Yankton Community Work Center at the appointed time.

McCune remains on escape status.

McCune, age 25, is a white male. He is 5-feet-7 inches tall and weighs approximately 190 pounds. He has brown hair and hazel eyes. McCune is serving a sentence for second-degree burglary out of Brown County.

Contact law enforcement if you see McCune or know of his whereabouts.

Failure to return to custody following an assignment or temporary leave granted for a specific purpose or limited period constitutes second-degree escape, a Class 5 felony punishable by up to 5 years in prison.
