

June 14, 2017

Xeriscaping

In 2015, the Department of Corrections adopted xeriscaping as part of an effort to conserve outdoor water usage at the State Penitentiary in Sioux Falls.

Instead of planting and maintaining flowers which require extensive watering and maintenance, items were planted that are drought resistant and require less water such as lillies, ornamental grasses and dwarf Korean lilac trees.

Before Xeriscaping

After Xeriscaping

