II Policy:

The acquisition and possession of personal property within a DOC institution is a privilege. Inmate personal property is subject to forfeiture.

III Definitions:

Personal Property:
Personal property includes all property owned by or in possession of an inmate that is not state owned or otherwise issued to the inmate on behalf of the Department of Corrections. Includes items an inmate is permitted to possess pursuant to policy, institutional operations memoranda or directives.

IV Procedures:

1. Forfeited Property:

   A. Inmates may be required to forfeit specified personal property items, as directed by staff, for a specified time period (See DOC policy 1.3.C.3 Inmate Discipline System and SDCL § 24-2-9), usually for safety, security or punitive reasons in response to negative behavior.

   B. The following personal property items are subject to forfeiture for punitive reasons:

      1. Television and/or remote;
      2. Personal radio/ear buds;
      3. Typewriter;
      4. Headphones;
      5. Coffee pot/hot pot;
      6. Musical instruments;
      7. Tablet;
      8. Calculator;
9. Craft work and craft supplies,

10. Board games; and

11. Desk lamp.

C. Inmates will not have access to forfeited personal property unless granted limited access to the item by staff for specified reasons.

D. Property may be temporarily forfeited for a specified time period, or an inmate may be ordered to send out or dispose of the item (See DOC policy 1.3.C.4 Inmate Personal Property).

E. Reference to inmate personal property shall not establish an ownership interest in the property superior to department policy, rules and procedures.

F. If the Disciplinary Hearing Officer (DHO), Unit Disciplinary Committee (UDC) or authorized staff order an inmate to forfeit a personal property item in response to actions or behaviors of the inmate or as a sanction issued through the disciplinary process, the inmate will be informed of the length of time which the item(s) shall be forfeited.

   1. During the time which forfeiture of the property item is imposed, the inmate will not be allowed to purchase or possess the specified personal property items.

   2. In the case of temporary forfeiture of an item, the inmate’s forfeited property may be stored in a designated, secure area of the institution.

G. Inmates may appeal an order to forfeiture of personal property through the Administrative Remedy process (See DOC policy 1.3.E.2 Administrative Remedy for Inmates).

2. Restrictive Housing Inmate Personal Property:

   A. Inmates assigned to a restricted housing unit may be ordered to temporarily forfeit specified personal property as a consequence for negative behavior, or when the inmate moves to a different level. A list of inmate personal property items subject to forfeiture is included in DOC policy 1.3.D.4 Restrictive Housing.

   B. Any approved personal property item temporarily forfeited by an inmate shall be stored in a designated, secure area of the institution until the property is returned to the inmate.
