Intermediate Correctional Intervention Program for Females

1. When does the DOC expect to issue the RFP? At this point, all timelines are tentative but DOC anticipates releasing the Maximizing JRI RFP by February 17, 2017.
2. When should the Vendor's expect to have the proposal submissions back to the DOC? Based on the tentative RFP schedule, submissions will be due on or about March 24, 2017.
3. Is there approved funding for the program? Yes, DOC was awarded a three-year Maximizing Justice Reinvestment Initiative (JRI) grant from the Bureau of Justice Assistance.
4. If yes, how much is the funding? The total award amount is $1,750,000.00 over three years with $985,500 in contractual services identified for three years of stable living services (housing, monitoring, case management, cognitive behavioral services) for an ADP of 12 residents.
5. Will this be a reoccurring contract? The JRI grant provides three years of funding. If the program meets its goals other funding sources may be pursued to continue the program after the grant period has expired.
6. How long is the expected initial contract term? The award period for this grant ends September 30, 2019. We anticipate the initial stable living services contract to extend to that date.
