Volunteer:

People from the community who freely choose to provide direct and/or indirect services to offenders and/or staff. Volunteers are not compelled to provide services and are not compensated directly for the services by the DOC.

IV Procedures:

1. Standards of Conduct:

**Note: The standards of conduct contained within this policy are in place to ensure staff members are aware of the basic expectations for their behavior, on and off duty, and to establish formal rules of ethical conduct. These guidelines operate in conjunction with state statute. This policy is not intended to contain an exhaustive list of ethical conduct or standards of conduct that apply to staff.*

This policy does not constitute an employment contract or guarantee of continued employment. The DOC reserves the right to change this policy and its contents at any time. Nothing in this policy limits the authority of the Bureau of Human Resources to establish or revise human resource policy. This policy is adopted to guide the internal operations of the DOC and does not create a legally enforceable interest or limit the Secretary or designee's authority to affect the status of any staff member.

Additional standards of conduct are located in the State Employee Handbook, which is available on the Bureau of Human Resources website at <https://bhr.sd.gov/forms/policies/Handbook.pdf>.

- A. A Department of Corrections staff member's position, title, authority, and work-based relationships may offer the opportunity to further the staff member's own private interests or interests of friends, relatives or persons with whom the staff member is affiliated. The public may lose confidence in the integrity of the department if it perceives a staff member is using public office to serve a private interest. Accordingly, it is expected that staff members will not use department information, property, time or relationships developed through their position, to serve private interests, and that staff shall avoid situations and actions that may adversely impact the public's trust.
1. Any effort by a staff member to realize personal benefit through association with the department beyond compensation provided by the State of South Dakota, is a violation of public trust.
  2. Staff may not use their official position to secure special privileges or advantages for themselves or others or engage in activities that constitute a conflict of interest.
  3. Staff may not knowingly use funds or property entrusted to them in violation of public trust, or in a manner that results in a direct financial benefit to the staff member. Violation constitutes theft.
  4. Staff shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all activities.
- B. Any effort by any person to influence a staff member to violate law, breach rules, regulations or laws, or to act in a manner contrary to the standards of ethical conduct described in this policy, is a violation of public trust.
- C. The DOC has zero tolerance for sexual abuse and sexual harassment. All allegations of sexual abuse or sexual harassment occurring in the workplace will be investigated. Appropriate services will be offered to all identified victims of the sexual abuse or sexual harassment. The DOC will respond to every identified perpetrator, including referral to law enforcement for possible criminal prosecution, if the investigation supports sexual abuse or sexual misconduct has occurred. Applicable state laws protecting the victim shall apply.

1. Any sexual abuse or sexual harassment involving a DOC staff member and an offender is expressly forbidden and a violation of DOC policy. Additionally, sexual abuse involving a staff member and offender may constitute a violation of state law (See Section F. of this policy).
  2. DOC staff are required to directly report to their supervisor or human resource manager, any knowledge, suspicion or information they have regarding the following:
    - a. An incident of sexual abuse or sexual harassment that may have occurred involving a DOC staff member and offender.
    - b. Any retaliation or adverse treatment that may have occurred against an offender or staff member who reported an incident of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment.
    - c. Any staff member whose negligence or violation of duties, responsibilities, or failure to abide by the code of ethics, may have contributed to the sexual misconduct or sexual harassment.
  3. A staff member who fails to report an incident of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment, may be subject to disciplinary action, including termination of employment.
- D. Certain standards of conduct apply to staff who supervise offenders (See DOC policy 1.1.C.2 Staff Supervision of Offenders). Staff shall conduct themselves and perform their duties, in such a way as to set a positive example for offenders and command respect. The following conduct by staff is prohibited:
1. Soliciting, trading, bartering or accepting any gift or compensation from any offender, family member of any offender or agent/representative of any offender.
  2. Developing or engaging in inappropriate relationships with offenders or fraternizing with an offender. Staff shall not become emotionally, romantically, financially or sexually involved with any offender. Staff is expected to maintain appropriate, professional boundaries with offenders and their family.
    - a. This includes using social media to engage in unauthorized communications with an offender or to contact offender's family or agent/representative of the offender for the purpose of initiating or engaging in unauthorized activity or prohibited conduct.
    - b. Staff is required to promptly disclose to their supervisor, any relationship that exists between the staff member and an offender supervised by the staff member.
  3. Engaging in any outside form of personal business or for-profit enterprise with any offender or agent/representative of an offender.
  4. No staff member may provide information to assist an offender in procuring clemency, i.e. personal recommendation, endorsement or input. Staff may provide information related to the offender, such as records and facts, upon request from the Board of Pardons and Parole, court or governor, pursuant to SDCL § 24-1-26.
    - a. At the request of the Board of Pardons and Parole, staff may furnish any requested record, fact or opinion in reference to an offender that may be in their possession or for which they have knowledge of.

5. Acting as a sponsor for any offender, or allowing any offender released from DOC custody to reside in a staff member's home/cohabitation, unless such arrangements have been fully disclosed in advance and approved by the Warden, Director, Secretary of Corrections or designee.
  - a. Exceptions may be granted to staff who are immediate family of the offender.
  - b. DOC volunteers may assist offenders with re-entry programming.
- E. A staff member committing the following misconduct may be subject to disciplinary action (ARSD 55:10:07:04):
  1. Accepting any form of a bribe or unlawful inducement; or providing or attempting to provide, a bribe or unlawful inducement to a staff member to commit an unlawful act or violate department policy.
  2. Staff are prohibited from performing assigned duties or reporting for duty under the influence of illegal drugs or substances; or unlawfully manufacturing, distributing, dispensing, possessing or using illegal drugs or substances (See ARSD 55:05:02:02 and SDCL § 3-6F-1). Staff are prohibited from performing duties under the influence of alcohol or medications (includes valid prescriptions or other lawful substances), when use of the substance(s) has rendered the staff member incapable of safely performing their duties.
    - a. Staff shall report to their supervisor any narcotic, barbiturate, hallucinogenic drug, central nervous system stimulant or intoxicant which has been prescribed to them and for which they are taking.
    - b. Under the influence is defined as the presence of any measurable or detectable amount of illegal drugs or substance, alcohol or medication in a staff member's system.
    - c. Staff may be ordered to submit to a drug screen test. Refusal by staff to submit to a drug screen test requested pursuant to ARSD 55:05:05:02 or ARSD 55:05:05:03, shall be considered the equivalent of a confirmed test result.
    - d. No staff member may refuse to submit to a scientific test to measure alcohol blood level when reporting to duty or while on duty, if reason exists which supports the staff member is or may be under the influence of alcohol.
    - e. Staff whose test results support a positive indication, are subject to disciplinary action (ARSD 55:05:07:03).
    - f. Staff convicted of a violation of criminal drug law, or who admit in court to a criminal drug violation, are subject to disciplinary action.
  3. No staff member may be insubordinate, neglectful or unwilling to follow lawful orders, or fail to perform officially designated duties.
  4. Discriminating against or demonstrating prejudice against any person, group or organization on the basis of race, religion, national origin, creed, gender, disability, political views or other individual characteristics.
  5. Inflicting or contributing to, any act of corporal punishment (See SDCL § 24-2-9), brutality, cruelty, abuse, neglect or excessive use of force upon any offender.

6. Knowingly introducing contraband into a DOC facility; or knowingly and intentionally facilitating offender access to contraband.
  - a. Possession of personal firearms within the perimeter of any DOC institution is prohibited (See Executive Order # 2019-16).
  - b. Personal firearms and duty firearms may be stored in vehicles on property owned, leased or occupied by the DOC, provided the firearm is secured as follows:
    - 1) The vehicle is locked.
    - 2) Stored in such a way that it cannot be identified as a firearm from outside the vehicle.
    - 3) In accordance with South Dakota law.
7. Knowingly or intentionally releasing or disclosing personally identifiable information (PII) to an unauthorized person, or in an unauthorized manner, or for an unauthorized purpose. PII is information obtained through the course of a staff member engaging in assigned duties that is protected from disclosure by law or is otherwise intended to be held in confidence.
  - a. PII includes certain information about an individual that is documented, recorded and kept by the DOC, including (1) any information used to distinguish or trace a person's identity (2) any information directly linked or linkable to an individual person, such as medical, employment or financial information, that is not identified as being public.
8. Withholding or failing to disclose information that may compromise the safety, security of staff, offenders or the public or threatens the orderly operation of the DOC or its facilities.
9. Endangering the well-being of staff, offenders, visitors or the public through willful, reckless or negligent misconduct or actions, or willful, reckless or negligent violation of law, rules or policies.
10. Disrupting the efficiency and morale of the DOC, its facilities or staff, to include deserting an assigned post or walking off the job.
11. Theft of state property; or careless, negligent use of state property; or using state equipment, materials or property for personal gain (See ARSD 55:10:01:06 and 55:10:07:04\(12\)). Staff shall protect and conserve state property, equipment and supplies entrusted to them.
12. Fraudulent use of leave (using sick leave for purposes other as permitted), or abuse of leave, or excessive tardiness or absenteeism, or failing to properly notify supervisors or designees when requesting leave. Requests to use leave shall be provided upon the staff member's knowledge of the need to use leave and made as soon as possible prior to the start of staff person's scheduled workday.
13. Failing to maintain a satisfactory work attendance record based on established working hours; or having unreported or unauthorized absences (See ARSD 55:10:01:08).
14. Having any financial interest in any contract or business conducted by the DOC (See SDCL § 24-1-25). No staff member who approves, awards, administers or supervise staff who approve, award or administer contracts involving the expenditure of DOC funds or sale or lease of DOC property, may have a pecuniary interest in the contract (See SDCL § 5-18A-17.6).

15. Accepting gratuities or gifts (property/object, service, money or thing of value), compensation or remuneration from any company, contractor or vendor that does business or actively aspires to do business with the State of South Dakota, except as authorized by DOC.

*Note: This does not apply to promotional items or activities associated with business conferences where vendors have provided the organizers of the conference promotional items/gifts and/or food and/or beverages, which are then distributed for immediate consumption to the attendees at the conference.

- a. Staff may accept unsolicited gifts or tokens of appreciation from representatives of another state, foreign country or tribe (the gifter), intended to be personal in nature, or when the gift or token is prompted by a personal friendship or professional relationship between the DOC or staff member and the gifter, and the intent of the gifter is not to influence the performance or non-performance of the staff member or to gain influence with the DOC.
  - b. Gifts or tokens may be accepted when refusal to accept the gift or token may cause offense or embarrassment to the department, or otherwise adversely affect relations between the department and the gifter or those represented by the gifter.
  - c. Staff who accept such gifts or tokens will notify the Warden, Director or Secretary of Corrections within 2 business days of acceptance of the gift or token. If the Warden, Director, Secretary or designee determines the gift or token is a violation of policy, state law or not in the best interest of the department, the gift or token shall be immediately returned.
  - d. When practical, gifts or tokens accepted by staff member on behalf of the department should be displayed in a common or public area of a DOC owned or leased facility.
16. Failing to abide by the standards of staff dress and grooming (See DOC policy 1.1.C.5 Staff Dress and Grooming Standards).
17. Engaging in outside business on state time; or using state property or materials for anything other than state functions (See ARSD 55:10:01:06).
18. Misrepresenting or intentionally omitting relevant facts, or intentionally falsifying a record, document or report, either verbally, electronically or in writing.
19. Engaging in conduct that reflects unfavorably on the DOC, undermines confidence in the operation of services provided by the DOC, or adversely affects the public's trust in the DOC.
20. Theft or attempted theft of personal property or funds belonging to any offender; or knowingly or intentionally failing to protect an offender's personal property or funds held by the DOC.
21. Failing to properly notify a supervisor of the lapse, expiration, suspension, revocation or termination of any required license, certification or legal status necessary to the performance of the staff member's assigned duties and responsibilities.
22. Selling any supplies to the DOC or state which directly and personally benefits the staff member or any firm or corporation which the staff member may have an interest (See SDCL § 1-15-12).

23. Engaging in harassing, threatening or violent behavior while on duty, or making threats to bully or harass another while on duty (See DOC policy 1.1.C.10 Staff Anti-Harassment and Discrimination Policy). The DOC does not tolerate any form of violence (physical or verbal), including intimidation, threats, or violent acts in the workplace. All allegations of staff violence or harassment shall be investigated, and corrective action shall be promptly administered, as warranted. Includes any retaliation or adverse treatment against an offender or staff member for reporting violations or cooperating in any investigation.
- F. The DOC does not monitor staff's personal use of social media. However, the DOC may investigate and take responsive action when it becomes aware of, or suspects staffs' conduct or communication on a social media site adversely impacts the DOC, violates applicable DOC policies, is inconsistent with the mission, vision and values of the DOC, or compromises the staff member's ability to adequately perform his/her assigned duties.
1. The DOC will follow-up and investigate threats of violence posted by any staff member within a social media platform which are reported or otherwise become known to the DOC. Staff who become aware of threats of violence posted to social media by a DOC staff member shall promptly report this to their supervisor.
  2. Staff will not use social media to communicate with staff members, offenders or supervisors, convey official DOC business or discuss job duties, responsibilities or work-related information, without prior permission from their supervisor.
- G. Staff shall comply with all laws (federal, state and local) during the performance of all official duties. The following are examples of conduct which is violation of law and may result in criminal prosecution and disciplinary action:
1. SDCL § 24-1-26.1. Sexual penetration with an inmate is a Class 6 felony (See SDCL § 22-6-1 \(9\)), punishable by a maximum sentence of two (2) years imprisonment in the state penitentiary or a fine of four thousand dollars ($4000), or both.
  2. SDCL § 22-22-7.6. Any person employed at any jail or juvenile correctional facility, who knowingly engages in an act of sexual contact or sexual penetration with another person in detention and under the custodial, supervisory, or disciplinary authority of the person so engaging, and which act of sexual contact or sexual penetration does not otherwise constitute a felony pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 22-22, is guilty of a Class 6 felony if the victim is an adult, and a Class 4 felony, if the victim is a juvenile. A juvenile correctional facility pursuant to this section is a juvenile detention facility as defined in subdivision 26-7A-1\(16\) or a juvenile facility operated by the Department of Corrections under § 1-15-1.4.
  3. SDCL § 22-21-4. No person may use or disseminate any visual recording or photographic device to photograph or visually record any other person without clothing or under or through clothing, for the purpose of viewing the body or undergarments worn by the other person, without the consent or knowledge of the person, with the intent to self-gratify, harass or embarrass and invade the privacy of the person, under circumstances in which the other person has a reasonable expectation of privacy. Violation is a Class 1 misdemeanor. Violation is a Class 6 felony if the victim is seventeen years of age or younger and the perpetrator is at least twenty-one years old.
  4. SDCL § 24-2-22. Possession of unauthorized articles with intent to deliver to prisoner as a felony. Any employee or other person who delivers or procures to be delivered, or possesses with the intention to deliver, to any inmate in the state penitentiary, or deposits or conceals in or around any facility or place used to house inmates, or in any mode of transport entering upon the grounds of any facility or place and its ancillary facilities used to house inmates, any article which is unlawful for an inmate to possess pursuant to state law or the rules of the Department of Corrections with the intent that any inmate obtain or receive such article, is guilty of a Class 6 felony.

5. SDCL § 24-11-48. Delivery of certain unauthorized articles to person incarcerated as a felony. No employee or other person may deliver or procure to be delivered, or have in such person's possession with intent to deliver, to any person incarcerated in a jail or a juvenile detention facility, or deposit or conceal in or around any jail or in or around a juvenile detention facility, or in any mode of transport entering the grounds of any jail or juvenile detention facility and its ancillary facilities used to house inmates or juveniles, any article or thing prohibited pursuant to § 24-11-47 with intent that any inmate obtain or receive the same. A violation of this section is a Class 6 felony.
- H. Staff with questions concerning the above information have an affirmative obligation to seek clarification from a supervisor or Bureau of Human Resources manager.

2. Supervision:

- A. A conflict of interest exists when there is a consensual romantic, sexual or dating relationship between a staff member and the staff member's supervisor. To minimize the risk of a conflict of interest, and to promote fairness within the work environment, any supervisor who becomes involved in a consensual romantic, sexual or dating relationship with a staff member they supervise, must immediately disclose the relationship to their supervisor.
- B. No supervisor may directly or indirectly supervise, or have influence over any employment status of any staff member they supervise when a consensual, romantic, sexual or dating relationship exists between the supervisor and staff member, including but not limited to, hiring, evaluation, promotion, termination, discipline, compensation or other employment status of the staff member, unless such relationship has been clearly, properly and openly disclosed to the person's supervisor and an exception has been approved by the Director, Warden, Secretary or designee.
- C. No supervisor may directly or indirectly hire, evaluate, promote, terminate, discipline or compensate any staff member with whom he/she is related by blood, marriage or adoption, unless an exception has been approved by the Director, Warden, Secretary or designee.
- D. Supervisors who fail to clearly and properly report such conflict/relationship may be subject to disciplinary action.
- E. The DOC reserves the right to investigate, and when appropriate, take prompt action, if an actual or potential conflict of interest arises concerning a staff member and supervisor that has not been properly reported or disclosed or a supervisor is found to have engaged in an inappropriate consensual romantic, sexual or dating relationship with a staff member they supervise.

3. Reporting:

- A. It is the responsibility of every staff member to promptly report any knowledge of misconduct, or a breach of the code of ethics, standards of conduct or conflict of interest, to their supervisor(s), Bureau of Human Resources manager or other appropriate authority.

- B. Staff must report any public official, including fellow staff, who has knowingly used funds or property entrusted to them in violation of public trust and whose use of such funds or property results in a direct financial benefit to the person.
- C. Staff must report any violation or suspected violation of a law or rule, abuse of funds, abuse of authority or substantial and specific danger to public health or safety, to their supervisor, unless providing such report is a violation of law.
- D. Any staff member who has been arrested or charged, or who has reasonable knowledge they will be arrested or charged with any felony or misdemeanor crime, must report this information to their supervisor the next business day. Violation of criminal law, either on or off duty by a staff member, may be a breach of the code of ethics. This includes but is not limited to:
  - 1. Any sex offense; violation of criminal drug statute; use, possession or distribution of illegal drugs, and driving under the influence (See SDCL § 32-23-1).
  - 2. Any temporary or permanent domestic or stalking protection order issued by a court served upon a staff member must be reported.
    - a. Staff must contact their supervisor when and if the order is terminated by the court or the order has officially expired.
  - 3. Minor violations, such as parking or speeding tickets or violations which result in a fine or bond forfeiture which is less than $200 do not require reporting, unless the violation(s) results in the revocation, termination or suspension of any required license relevant to the staff person's duties.
  - 4. Staff authorized by the DOC to carry a DOC issued firearm, must immediately report to their supervisor any adverse legal action, finding, condition or status that may prohibit or impede their ability to safely and legally possess a firearm.
- E. Staff who report violations/misconduct in good faith through their chain of command or other appropriate authority, will not be retaliated against or subject to adverse treatment. Staff self-reporting violations, misconduct or who provide false report, or make a report with reckless disregard for the truth, remain subject to disciplinary action.

4. Investigations:

- A. Staff members will cooperate fully and truthfully with any legitimate investigation ordered by the Secretary, Warden, Director or other with proper authority to order such an investigation.
- B. Failure to cooperate with an investigation may be grounds for disciplinary action, including termination.

5. Disciplinary Action:

- A. Conduct by any staff member within or outside the scope of employment that violates the code of ethics or is included in the just causes listed in ARSD 55:10:07:04, is prohibited and shall subject the staff member to disciplinary action.

6. Staff Appeal:

- A. A staff member may appeal disciplinary action pursued by the department or its representative for alleged violations of the code of ethics, within 14-days of notification of the disciplinary action. Appeals shall be filed in accordance with departmental grievance procedures (See DOC policy 1.1.C.4 Staff Grievances and ARSD Chapter § 55:10:07 and 55:10:09:02).
- B. A current copy of the state grievance procedure may be obtained through the human resource office and DOC policy 1.1.C.4 Staff Grievances.
