

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Over the past couple months, in the wake of the tragic loss of CO Johnson, many people have asked if there is something they can do to help. I thought I would share with you one of the options. As you know a Memorial Fund has been set up for the family. A fund raising effort is being undertaken by the Employee Clubs at the DOC adult institutions by selling memorial window cling decals in the form of a couple different badges. The clings are 5" x 5" and will be available at the adult prisons or by sending a check to Pheasantland for $5 @ plus $1 for postage and we can mail them out to you. Or e-mail Owen at owen.spurrell@state.sd.us

Employee Spotlight

Pat Gacke has worked for over 18 years as a shop foreman at Pheasantland Industries. Pat supervises the Braille unit where he oversees the production of Braille with graphics and large print books for blind students across the country. This shop also has a binding department that produces a full color hard binding for its transcribed books.

He also supervises the upholstery shop where they manufacture a line of custom office chairs along with upholstery work for people who want to give their old items a new look. This shop also produces mattresses, pillows & towels.

Reducing Printing Cost

A couple items to keep in mind when choosing your printing needs. There is a big cost difference between color copies and black and white copies. Paper weights and finishes also add up quickly. New faster copiers do not need special coatings such as aqueous finishes. Most all of your printing needs can be handled in our print shop.
