Director's Note

'Tis the Season

It's a hen, it's a hen...you might be hearing this shortly and it lets us know hunting seasons are here. Check out our blaze orange vests for your best hunting buddies, your dogs. Not only do they make them more visible to other hunters, they will protect them from the briars and barbed wire as you are hunting. Hunting means trapping is close by and our live traps are just the ticket to save the pelts. Better pelts, better money. Don't let the cool weather fool you. As you hunt you will be perspiring and loss of fluids means dehydration. Keep this in mind for you and your hunting partner.

Have a safe and bountiful hunting season.
