Inmate Walks Away from Prison Work Site May 19, 1999

A South Dakota Penitentiary inmate walked away from his prison work assignment May 18th.

Michael Edward McAfee was working as a trusty at the West Farm, near Sioux Falls. It's believed he drove away from the farm in a blue van with the license plate number BS124.

McAfee is serving a 10-year sentence for grand theft. He is a white male, 6'3", approximately 250 pounds, with red hair and green eyes.

If you see McAfee or the van, contact your local law enforcement immediately.
