Custer Motel Offers Free Night Stay to Parents of STAR Academy Youth

(Pierre) – A Custer motel is offering parents of youth who are in the state juvenile corrections programs free lodging on Christmas Eve.

The Custer Super 8 Motel will allow parents of State Treatment and Rehabilitation (STAR) Academy youth to spend the night of December 24th free of charge if they are in Custer to visit their child.

"Maintaining contact with family is an important part of the youth's rehabilitation," said Secretary of Corrections Tim Reisch. "We applaud the Custer Super 8 for this very generous outreach to the parents of these youth."

Parents of STAR Academy youth can contact the Custer Super 8 at (605) 673-2200 to make a reservation or for more information.
