Living Center A Students Walk Away from Facility

(Pierre) - Two students walked away from the Living Center A program at the Custer Youth Corrections Center (CYCC) Thursday.

One of the students is a 16-year old Native American male from Sturgis. He is 5'7", weighs approximately 135 pounds and has brown hair and blue eyes.

The other is a 17-year old from Belle Fourche. He is 6 feet tall and weighs approximately 180 pounds and has brown hair and brown eyes.

Living Center A is a correctional program based on the CYCC campus. A typical stay at Living Center is 6-to-9 months and involves the students participating in counseling, life-skills development, educational classes, vocational education, substance abuse treatment and work therapy.
