Juvenile Corrections Agent honored with Youth Services award

Pierre, S.D. - A juvenile corrections agent from Rapid City is being honored for her work with young people.

Tammi Archbold was awarded the Youth Services Award by Behavior Management Systems as part of National Mental Health month. She received the award at the Pennington County Commission meeting on May 18th.

The award is given to one individual in the community each year that has demonstrated the utmost commitment in serving the needs of youth in their community.

Archbold was hired in 1996 as a juvenile corrections agent, which oversee juvenile offenders from their commitment to DOC until their release from supervision. She also assists with training other agents.
