Inmates assisting with interstate clean up project near Sioux Falls

Pierre, S.D. - State prison inmates are helping the Department of Transportation clean up along roadsides near Sioux Falls.

Between six and eight inmates from Unit C, the minimum-security unit of the Jameson Annex of the South Dakota State Penitentiary, are picking up trash from the ditches along Interstate 229.

The work area runs from the I-229 and I-29 interchange to the I-229 and I-90 interchange.

The inmates have been involved in the interstate clean up for the past several years.
