Inmates helping with interstate clean up project

Pierre, S.D. - State prison inmates will help to clean up Interstate 29 as part of a Department of Corrections community service work project in conjunction with the South Dakota Department of Transportation.

Twenty inmates from the Yankton Trusty Unit will begin picking up trash from the ditches along the interstate from the South Dakota and Iowa border on Monday, April 11th. Once the inmate crews reach the Vermillion exit rest area, they will also do general clean up work at the rest area.

The inmates will continue working on the clean up project until they reach mile marker 59 at the Davis-Hurley exit.
