Inmates returning to Lebanon, SD to continue with storm clean up efforts

Pierre, S.D. – State prison inmates are returning to Lebanon, SD to help with continuing clean up efforts following last week's storms.

Twenty inmates from the South Dakota Women's Prison in Pierre will assist with clean up efforts in the Potter County community on Thursday, June 16th.

Last week, inmates from the Women's Prison helped clear debris and tree branches in the Lebanon area during a storm June 7th.

Male inmates from the Redfield Trusty Unit also assisted with clean up efforts in Faulkton, Cresbard and Seneca last week.
