IV. PROCEDURES

1. General:

SECTION	SUBJECT	DOC POLICY	Page 3 of 4
General Administration	Brand Elements: Seal, Logos, and Trademarks	100-19	Effective: 08/15/2024

- A. Departments, divisions, offices, facilities, and individuals may only use the SD DOC trademarks in strict accordance with this policy.
 1. No trademark may be altered or combined with any other mark or element.
 2. A unit may use its name with the SD DOC's wordmark only as approved by the division director and deputy secretary.
 3. The wordmark is required on all official internal and external communication, excluding individual email messages.
 4. The SD DOC colors and brand elements must appear prominently on all communication and marketing materials. No similar color, regardless of its specifications, may be used in a way that could cause confusion with an SD DOC trademark.
 5. The use of official SD DOC letterhead and business cards is required in all matters of official SD DOC business.
 6. The use of SD DOC trademarks in print or electronic materials including email and social media must conform to brand requirements.

2. Use of the SD DOC Seal:

- A. The SD DOC Seal may be used only as authorized. It is reserved for use on official documents bearing the signature of the cabinet secretary or deputy secretary of the department, a division director, on official SD DOC awards, and in connection with events or facilities that are frequently used by or have a unique connection to the SD DOC.
- B. Contact the deputy secretary for approval to use the SD DOC seal.

3. Use of SD DOC Wordmark:

- A. Units are required to use the wordmark as the letterhead in connection with official SD DOC business. They may use the unit wordmark combination that has been approved by the division director and deputy secretary.
- B. The wordmark or unit wordmark combination may be used on apparel, letterhead, visual presentations, business cards, building signs, and other SD DOC items including job recruitment materials.

4. Use of the SD DOC Seven Point Star:

- A. The seven-point star is the only approved image to be used as the signature line of email messages.
 1. Individuals may use the seven-point star indicating his/her security rank if applicable.
 - a. This applies to the following positions: Cabinet secretary, deputy secretary, director of prisons, director of parole, director of juvenile services, deputy director of prisons, warden, associate warden, major, captain, lieutenant, sergeant, corporal, officer, inspector general, associate director of parole, parole agent, parole supervisor, juvenile supervisor, juvenile agent, and juvenile corrections specialist.
 2. Individuals in a management position, including those on the senior management team, which do not have a security rank may use the seven-point star with the gold semi-circle.
 3. The seven-point star with the silver semi-circle must be used if the individual does not hold a security rank or management position.
- B. The seven-point star may be used on recruitment materials for job announcements and presentation materials. This includes the specific seven-point star for each security rank.

5. Use of SAFERSD Logo:
