DESCRIPTION:	REVIEW MONTH:
Training and Staff Development	May

I. POLICY

It is the policy of the South Dakota Department of Corrections (DOC) to provide planned, organized, and evaluated training and development opportunities that improve job performance, facilitate career development, and elevate professionalism for DOC staff. The department will provide an annual report on its training plan and provide ongoing formal evaluation of all basic training, in-service training, and specialized training programs [ACA 5-ACI-1D-05] and [ACA 1-CTA-3A-06].

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish standards, define elements and structure, and assign responsibilities of the DOC training system. The mission of the training program is to create and maintain an environment where new employees are prepared for entry into the corrections profession, and in-service employees are trained to their highest potential and are empowered to achieve the highest standard of professionalism. This is accomplished through the development, delivery, and management of basic, in-service, and specialized training through the DOC Training Department.

III. DEFINITIONS

Community Corrections Staff:

Director of Juvenile Services, juvenile services specialists, juvenile corrections agent supervisors, juvenile corrections agents, and support / clerical staff employed by the DOC, full or part-time.

In-Service:

Annual training provided by the division to facility staff and parole and juvenile division staff in order to present new information and/or skills and enhance and/or reinforce existing knowledge or skills for use in daily operations.

Senior Juvenile Corrections Agent:

Staff that serve as division field training officers. Senior agents are assigned an area of specialization, to include one or more of the following: EBP curriculum specialist; Mandt, and risk/needs assessment specialists.

Senior Parole Agent:

Staff that serve as division field training officers. Senior agents are assigned an area of specialization, to include evidence-based practices specialist, firearms instructors, field training officers (FTO), and defensive tactics instructors.

Training Advisory Committee:

A committee composed of the associate director of staff training and development and representatives from the agency's executive team and operational units to develop, evaluate, and update the annual training plan.

IV. PROCEDURES

1. Training Requirements:

- A. Written policy, procedure, and practice provide that the institution's employee staff development and training programs are planned, coordinated, and supervised by a qualified supervisory employee. The training plan is reviewed annually [ACA 5-ACI-1D-01] and [ACA 1-CTA-3A-01].
- B. The qualified individual coordinating the staff development and training program has specialized training for that position [ACA 5-ACI-1D-02] and [ACA 1-CTA-3A-02]. The associate director of staff training and development is a full-time qualified employee who will administer and direct the DOC training programs. This individual is responsible for ensuring that training and development programs are coordinated, planned, and supervised.
 1. The annual training plan is developed, evaluated, and updated based on an annual assessment that identifies current job-related training needs and provides for ongoing evaluation of all basic, in-service, and specialized training programs [ACA 5-ACI-1D-03] and [ACA 1-CTA-3A-03]. The institution's training plan is developed by an advisory training committee composed of the institution's training coordinator and representatives from other institutional departments [ACA 5-ACI-1D-04] and reviewed and approved by an advisory training committee composed of the associate director of staff training and development and representatives from the DOC's central office and operational units [ACA 1-CTA-3A-05]. The DOC Training Advisory Committee meets quarterly or as needed and is chaired by the associate director of staff training and development.
 2. The training plan will at a minimum consist of the following information:
 - a. List of all courses/classes to be offered.
 - b. Projected dates of the courses/classes offered.
 - c. Synopsis of each course/class, including length in hours, target group, objectives, and prerequisite training.
 - d. Enrollment information.
 - e. It will be available to employees by January 1, in advance of the training year.
 3. There will be a quarterly meeting of all training staff to address training needs and issues and participate in planning, review, and evaluation of the training system.
 4. DOC facilities and offices will establish a facility training advisory committee that will include field training staff appointed by the warden, director, or designee to review or make suggestions to the annual training plan, review the results of the needs assessments, and review and evaluate the training programs. The facility Training Advisory Committees will meet quarterly to review progress and resolve problems and will maintain a written record of meetings for the warden and the associate director of staff training and development [ACA 5-ACI-1D-04]. Submitted by each facility/office, these training plans document the projected classes, their tentative schedule, and identify those courses which the facility/office has mandated for employees, contract workers, and volunteers. Training plans are developed, evaluated, and updated based on a valid assessment that identifies current job-related training needs.
 5. The training department will provide for a system to monitor operations and training programs through inspections and reviews. This monitoring is conducted by the associate director of staff training and development or designee(s) at least annually.
 6. All training offered in the DOC will be posted and available on the DOC intranet. Field training staff may also share training announcements through roll call briefings or postings within the facility. monthly training calendars will be coordinated and consolidated regarding locations, dates, times, and instructors to maximize training resources. Supervisors are required to approve/deny training requests and make scheduling adjustments if needed, in accordance with facility/office procedures. Each course of instruction will have a class schedule that includes the name of each class, time and date of each class, and scheduled instructor [ACA 1-CTA-3A-13].

SECTION	SUBJECT	DOC POLICY	Page 3 of 16

7. Employees, contract workers, and volunteers approved and registered for any training are expected to attend training in its entirety, unless the reservation is canceled in advance, or an emergency occurs which is verified by the supervisor. Names of participants registered for training but not in attendance will be submitted to the respective supervisor. The participant must complete an attendance roster and successfully complete the course, as documented by the course instructor, and authenticated by the training staff. Daily class attendance is recorded, certified as accurate by the instructor, and maintained as required by local statute or regulation [ACA 1-CTA-3A-12].
8. The DOC will encourage employee membership and attendance for job related seminars, conferences, and workshops, and participation in criminal justice and professional organizations and activities as resources permit.
9. Job responsibilities or activities may require attendance at one or more of the basic training classes as recommended by the warden and approved by the associate director of staff training and development or designee.
10. Bureau of Information & Telecommunication (BIT) and the training department will address computer training information needs, programs, and implementation.

2. Training Responsibilities - Departmentwide:

- A. Supervisors departmentwide, at all levels, are responsible for ensuring that their employees receive the training necessary to satisfactorily perform their duties.
 1. Supervisors will ensure that each of their employees attends and satisfactorily completes training sufficient to meet or exceed the in-service mandatory minimum training.
 - a. Supervisors and officers in charge (OICs) will ensure that their subordinates will perform only those duties for which they have received training.
 - b. BHRA staff will review applications and initiate security background checks on DOC applicants considered for ID badges where applicable.

3. Basic Training and Orientation – Institutional Staff:

- A. New employee training will consist of the following, at a minimum:
 1. All DOC staff assigned to any job requiring offender interactions, supervision, or assignment beyond a main control center gate or slider into the facility requires one hundred twenty (120) hours during the first year of employment to include:
 - a. Standards of conduct/ethics/professionalism.

- B. All new correctional officers receive one hundred twenty (120) hours of training during their first year of employment [ACA 5-ACI-1D-12].
- C. During basic training, all new staff will sign the New Hire Confidentiality Agreement and the New Hire - Employee Tuberculin Screening forms (see attachments #3 and #4).
- D. Any alternate training requirements will be determined on a case-by-case basis with the safety of that staff member and their working environment being a contributing factor to training received. These requirements will be communicated to the associate director of staff training and development with approval from the respective director.
- E. Training presented to staff members by the institution's training staff must have prior approval from the associate director of staff training and development and will be documented and recorded. An individual record of all training received by each staff member will be maintained.
- F. Roll Call Training: Roll call training is a sequenced training developed and approved by the associate director of staff training and development. Roll call training is offered during roll call by designated facility staff.
1. A total of up to eight (8) hours of roll call training credit may be accumulated, per training/performance cycle.
- G. Block Training: Facilities/offices may deliver annual in-service/mandatory training in designated blocks of time. A plan detailing the courses, qualified instructors, and scheduling will be provided to the associate director of staff training and development and training or designee for review and approval at least sixty (60) days in advance of block training.
- H. On-line training: On-line training completed by accessing SDLEARN will be granted training credits not to exceed eight (8) hours.
- I. Threat Pattern Recognition (TPR): Only instructors authorized/certified by the Pressure Point Control Tactics (PPCT) Management Incorporated/Human Factor Science Group are permitted to instruct TPR. After March 01, 2023, all employees that are required to attend a full basic training academy will obtain and maintain current certification in TPR training.
1. Anyone hired prior to March 01, 2023, and still employed at the DOC, may retain their TPR status.
 2. Annual TPR Refresher: All staff certified in TPR are required to take an eight (8) hour annual refresher course within one (1) year of the date of previous certification. With notification prior to the staff members certification expiration, the associate director of staff training and development or designee will have the discretionary authority to grant an extension of up to ninety (90) days, if due to extenuating circumstances as defined by PPCT Management Incorporated/Human Factor Science Group (i.e., military, medical, disasters, or civil emergency), an employee, contract worker, or volunteer is unable to complete a refresher within a year. A thirty (30) day extension for any other reason may be granted by the associate director of staff development and training upon request by the warden.
 3. Employees who fail to maintain TPR certification will be referred to the warden for further action.
 4. Completion of TPR: Upon successful completion of TPR, a form must be signed and dated acknowledging that no unreported injuries were sustained.
 5. Requests for exemption from TPR certification: All employees required to complete full basic training must complete and successfully pass practical and written testing for the TPR requirements during basic training and maintain certifications annually or submit an exemption request through their warden that will be forwarded to the associate director of staff training and development and the director of Prisons for review.
 6. Failure to complete the appropriate TPR certifications may exclude an employee from future promotional or transfer opportunities.

Training and Staff Development	DOC Staff Training	900-01	Effective: 06/15/2024

- J. CPR/First Aid: The training requirements for CPR/First Aid are:
1. Medical DOC employees will receive a current certification in American Heart Association (AHA) Basic Life Support (BLS) for healthcare providers if their BLS expires within one (1) year at time of hire. This will be coordinated through the director of Clinical and Correctional Services.
 2. CPR / First Aid and AHA BLS certifications are active for two (2) years from the month of certification.
- K. Staff Development/Advancement:
1. The training department will schedule courses that prepare employees for career advancement and professional growth. Topics may include but are not limited to leadership skills, supervision techniques, diversity issues, personnel rules, conflict management, dispute resolution, budgetary and/or fiscal areas, decision making, and problem solving.
 2. These courses may be scheduled by the training department or requested by individual facilities through the training department.
 3. Employees or contract workers who are required to maintain specialty/technical licenses or certifications as a condition of employment must provide updated certificates or licenses to the Bureau of Human Resources and Administration (BHRA) and the training department as necessary.
 4. Certain training courses and/or frequency of training may be identified by DOC as priority training for all or specifically defined employees, in coordination with the associate director of staff training and development or designee.
 5. Wardens, in coordination with training and supervisory personnel, will ensure that employees, contract workers, and volunteers whose job assignments require mandatory training attend such training, as defined by policy, procedure, statute, law, or by direction of the secretary of corrections (SOC).
 6. Whenever a training course is determined by the executive management team to be mandatory department-wide, it will be coordinated through the associate director of staff training and development to ensure that adequate resources are available to provide training.
 7. Based on the facility/offices specific mission, the warden may designate selected training to be mandatory for employees assigned to that location.
- L. Curriculum development and distribution: The training curriculum is developed based on clear, concise, and measurable written statements of intended learning outcomes. The content and instructional methods selected for a training program are consistent with stated learning objectives, sequenced to facilitate learning, and incorporate strategies to evaluate the learning. The student training and development programs use the resources of public and private agencies, private industries, colleges, universities, and libraries [ACA 5-ACI-1D-07] and [ACA 1-CTA-3A-09]. Numerous resources exist including the National Institute of Corrections and National Academy of Corrections, National Institute of Justice, large corporations, and professional groups. Training courses may be provided directly or sponsored by the training department, facilities, agencies, local college network, public and private agencies, other state agencies, or private vendors.
- M. Lesson Plans: Training curriculum is created/revised by credentialed curriculum developers, delivered by authorized instructors, and in accordance with approved DOC curriculum and procedures. A completed and approved lesson plan cover page will be submitted with all lesson plans which will list instructor qualifications for each class. All DOC training lesson plans, course outlines, or content summaries will be submitted to the respective training manager for review and forwarded to the associate director of staff training and development or designee for final review and approval.
1. The training department will provide standards for the development of lesson plans and require that lesson plans be on file and followed for each class conducted [ACA 1-CTA-3A-14].
 2. Lesson plan approval by the associate director of staff training and development or designee is required in order to establish course information required for entry into the learning management system (LMS), which ultimately ensures participant training credit and establishes that the training

13. Training Records and Documentation:

SECTION	SUBJECT	DOC POLICY	Page 12 of 16
Training and Staff Development	DOC Staff Training	900-01	Effective: 06/15/2024

- A. The training department will govern the maintenance and handling of staff training records [ACA 1-CTA-3A-10]. The associate director of training is responsible for maintaining final training records for all divisions. They will maintain an ongoing record of personnel training and instructor credentials in accordance with standards and procedures issued through the training department.
1. A record for each course will be maintained that includes:
 - a. Attendance records (Training Roster).
 - b. Lesson Plans.
 - c. The instructor's name (Training Roster Attendance).
 - d. Class evaluations.
 - e. Course beginning and ending dates.
 - f. Student test results (if applicable).
 - g. A record of certificates awarded (if applicable).
- B. The training lieutenants will maintain a separate record of training for each employee. Training records for volunteers or contract temporary medical employees can be kept in a combined alphabetized folder.
- C. All training rosters will be entered into the LMS by designated staff members in order for staff to receive credit and receive notifications of required future trainings from the system. Training records will contain, at a minimum, documentation of the employee's job specialty, attendance at basic training and in-service training, subjects covered, and training pertinent to job performance received from any outside source.
- D. Each employee is responsible for informing the training department of the course name, dates and hours attended when they complete any relevant continuing education.

14. DOC Instructor Credentialing:

- A. In order for DOC Instructors to maintain credentials, they must adhere to the highest standards of professional performance in accordance with policy 100-05 – Code of Ethics. Training credentials are evaluated on an ongoing basis. To maintain instructor credentials, instructors are expected to:
1. Maintain a minimum rating of satisfactory or above on all CPC evaluations and reviews.
 2. Instruct at least the minimum number of required classes and maintain generally satisfactory class evaluations.
 3. Complete and sign an annual instructor recertification by June 30th each year.
- B. Use of force instructors must adhere to the following:

 2. Complete and sign use of force instructor standards and procedures annual update.
 3. Adhere to applicable standards and procedures.
 4. Maintain current CPR/First Aid credentials.
 5. Instruct, or co-instruct, the minimum number of classes for each use of force discipline per the use of force instructor guidelines.
- G. Existing use of force instructors receiving a new credential during the training cycle must also complete a use of force instructor new credential update.
- H. Failure to maintain use of force instructor status invalidates all use of force instructor credentials or certifications. Classes instructed by non-credentialed personnel may be invalidated.
- I. TPR instructors that cannot recertify prior to their certification date must request an extension in writing of up to ninety (90) days if due to extenuating circumstances as defined by PPCT Management Incorporated/Human Factor Science Group (i.e., military, medical, disasters, or civil emergency).
- J. All instructors authorized to train others in the use of chemical agents have been certified / credentialed by a competent authority to conduct such training [ACA 1-CTA-3A-17]. All instructors will receive thorough training in the use of the chemical agent and in the treatment of individuals exposed to a chemical agent [ACA 5-ACI-1D-21 (M)] and [ACA 1-CTA-3A-17]. All instructors authorized to train others in the use of force and unarmed self-defense are certified / credentialed by a competent authority to conduct such training [ACA 1-CTA-3A-18].
- K. All firearm instructors are certified / credentialed by a competent authority to conduct such training [ACA 1-CTA-3A-16].
- L. Firearms training courses cover the use, safety, and care of firearms and the constraints on their use. Courses must include a demonstration of individual student competency [ACA 1-CTA-3A-23].
- M. Revocation of instructor credentials can be made by the associate director of staff training and development with collaboration of the warden. Removal of instructor credentials shall be accomplished by notification to the instructor and the employee's warden. Training staff will be notified if an instructor is moved to inactive status.
- N. The instructor review process will include, at a minimum, the following areas: classroom management, teaching performance, and professional competencies.
1. Completed instructor reviews will be forwarded to the associate director of staff training and development and placed into the instructor file. Instructors will be evaluated in the following manner:
 - a. A - Top instructor, well prepared, high credibility, engaging, good classroom management.

SECTION	SUBJECT	DOC POLICY	Page 14 of 16
Training and Staff Development	DOC Staff Training	900-01	Effective: 06/15/2024

- b. B - Good Instructor, needs more experience or credibility.
 - c. C - Fair instructor, still learning, needs additional preparation, practice, or more experience.
 - d. D - Unsatisfactory instructor: unprepared, low credibility, disrespects students, inappropriate language, and / or poor classroom management. Credentials may be suspended or revoked.
 - 2. To be re-credentialed, the instructor must attend the presenters' course. When/if re-instated, the instructor will co-instruct until training reviews improve. To request a reinstatement of instructor credentials, an instructor will resubmit an instructor application to include a letter of explanation regarding the loss of credentials.
- O. The associate director of staff training and development retains the authority to recommend the temporary or permanent suspension of any DOC employees instructor credentials. Recommendations will be made in writing to the employee's warden, who after consultation with the associate director of staff training and development, will make a final determination. Employees who have had their instructor credentials suspended may appeal the decision in writing to their warden.
- P. Training credits will be granted for approved curriculum only, as well as:
 - 1. Meetings when presentations with training elements are included.
 - 2. Meeting roster and agenda must be submitted with written requests, requests to attend external training for credit must be job related and approved in advance by the supervisor in accordance with established facility procedures.
 - 3. Requests to attend external trainings will be submitted on a Training and Out of State Travel Request form (see attachment #5) that is signed by the warden for approval, forwarded to the appropriate director for approval, when applicable, prior to registration and attendance.
- Q. Vendor provided on-line training must be taken during scheduled work hours, unless previously approved by a supervisor.
- R. National Institute of Corrections Workshops: Requests to attend the National Institute of Corrections workshops will be submitted to the warden for approval. The National Institute of Corrections training application is then forwarded to the appropriate director for approval and to the SOC. A copy of the application will be forwarded to the training department.

15. Continuing Education:

- A. Professional development or other career advancement training courses either offered internally or through outside agencies may be attended by employees with approval from supervisors and wardens.
- B. Employees and contract workers will be encouraged to continue their education as authorized. Employees may receive training credit for higher education course work when approved in advance by their supervisor, in accordance with their facility procedures. Total training credit awarded equals three (3) times the number of credit hours of the college courses.
- C. Training department may grant training credit for corrections related team building activities when approved by the warden or designee for staff that have been scheduled and approved to participate by their supervisor. Requests for training credit must be submitted using an outside summary training report.
- D. Employees may be allowed to cross train in areas other than normal work assignments. The employee must get approval from their immediate supervisor for consideration to be cross trained. Cross training must be approved by the post supervisor or designee. Cross training will not account for more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the employee's total annual mandatory training hours. Cross training schedules will not negatively impact minimal staffing patterns.

Training and Staff Development	DOC Staff Training	900-01	Effective: 06/15/2024

- E. Authorization to receive training credit for attending specialty training courses/seminars outside of DOC will be completed and submitted to the warden or director on an External Training Summary Report (see attachment #6) within sixty (60) days of completion. External training credit will not account for more than twenty-five percent (25%) of an employee's total annual mandatory training hours. These hours will be tracked by the training department. Staff conducting external training in representation of the department must complete the proper forms prior to attendance.
1. An External Training Summary Report accompanied by a certificate, transcript, or agenda can be forwarded to the training department for credit approval and data entry. Credit will be given for all actual training time spent in workshops or sessions at work-related conferences.
 2. Any properly credentialed employee who instructs or is a lead developer on a mandatory course (including American Correctional Association mandated courses) may receive training credit for the course. This credit is limited to one (1) time, per year, per course. The instructor will sign the class roster in the area designated for instructors and then notify, in writing, the training department of their intent to receive credit. The respective training manager will input the training credit into the LMS.

16. Requesting Outside Agency Training:

- A. DOC training may be provided to outside agencies under the following conditions:
1. DOC curriculum may be shared with outside corrections/law enforcement agencies when approved, in advance, by the associate director of staff training and development or designee in addition to the director of Prisons. Outside agencies may be required to sign a waiver of liability before receiving the curriculum.
 2. Appropriately credentialed DOC instructors may provide training to outside corrections/law enforcement agencies when approved, in advance, by the associate director of staff training and development.
 3. The outside agency must submit an Outside Agency Training Request (see attachment #7) and assume all responsibility for any instructor workers' compensation issues, lodging, meals, and per diem costs that may occur.
 4. Additional fees for the training may be established and billed by the training department through the department of finance and administration.
 5. Personnel and financial resources will be considered and defined in a letter of agreement or memorandum of understanding between the DOC and the outside agency. The LOA/MOU between the DOC and outside agencies will be developed/approved by the appropriate director and signed by the SOC or designee. Records will be maintained by the office of the SOC and the training department.
 6. Any employee assisting with, overseeing, or providing training programs, where personal compensation is included, must have an approved outside work permit and prior approval from the associate director of staff training and development or designee.
 7. Employees attending external training are required to be in compliance with policies 100-05 - Staff Code of Ethics and 100-08 – Staff Dress and Grooming Standards.
- B. If the training is located outside of the state of South Dakota, the approved request must be approved by the director and must also be submitted and approved by the secretary of corrections (SOC), or designee.

17. Annual Policy Review:

- A. All staff members will have access to the current DOC policies and will review the policies on an annual basis and upon substantial revision of any of the policies.

V. RESPONSIBILITY

The directors of Prisons, Juvenile Services, Parole, and Clinical and Correctional Services are responsible for the annual review and revision of this policy.
