I. POLICY

It is the policy of the South Dakota Department of Corrections (DOC) to comply with all rules and requirements under the Interstate Commission for Juveniles.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to set forth the procedures followed for those transfers involving Interstate compact transfers from the State of South Dakota to another state. The juvenile corrections agents' (JCA) official reference for correspondence and transfer through the Interstate Compact on Juveniles is the "ICJ Rules, Interstate Commission for Juveniles, Serving Juveniles While Protecting Communities" published by the Interstate Commission for Juveniles and also available at the ICJ website. This policy is intended to serve as a reference to the Commissions official publications and Uniform Nationwide Interstate Tracking for Youth (UNITY) training resources.

III. DEFINITIONS

Interstate Commission for Juveniles (ICJ):

The Interstate Commissions for Juveniles is charged with overseeing the day-to-day operations of the Interstate Compact for Juveniles, a formal agreement between member states that seeks to promote the proper supervision or return of juveniles, delinquents, and status offenders who are on probation or parole and who have absconded, escaped, or run away from supervision. The ICJ website is <http://www.juvenilecompact.org>.

Uniform Nationwide Interstate Tracking for Youth:

The Uniform Nationwide Interstate Tracking for Youth (UNITY) is a web-based system that facilitates the supervising, transferring, accepting, tracking, and returning of juveniles from one state to another. UNITY enables the fifty (50) states and two (2) territories that comprise the Interstate Compact for Juveniles (ICJ) to manage workflow and communications, as well as provide consistent service to juveniles. UNITY provides users with the ability to quickly complete ICJ forms, notify Compact offices of new information and requests, and track cases and juveniles.
